

Rolex Grand Slam of Show Jumping

Athletes' regulations for the Rolex Grand Slam of Show Jumping – 2015

1. Introduction

The Rolex Grand Slam is a link of equestrian Events sponsored by Rolex S.A.

The Events integrated in the Rolex Grand Slam are:

- CSI5* Aachen (GER) – 30-31 May 2015
- CSIO5* Calgary, Spruce Meadows (CAN) – 9-13 September 2015
- CSI5* Geneva (SUI) – 10-13 December 2015

The Grand Prix of each designated Event will count for the Rolex Grand Slam.

2. Participating Events / Athletes

Athletes with a chance to win a bonus will automatically be invited to the CSI designated Event under the FEI CSI invitation rules.

With respect to the CSIO/CHIO designated events: If eligible qualified individual Athletes, not entered as a team member for a CSIO Event which is part of the Rolex Grand Slam of Show Jumping, the respective NF's will make their best effort so that the eligible Rolex Grand Slam of Show Jumping Athletes (those currently in the bonus cycle) are entered either as an individual in addition to team members or as a team member. If the former (individual) is the case all National Federations represented by teams will be permitted to send one or two individuals in addition to team members. In summary, all NF's represented by teams must be allowed to have the same number of Athletes represented at the CSIO.

3. Travel Expenses

In the case the place of residence of the winner(s) of the two previous Events is on another continent than where the Rolex Grand Slam Event takes place, Rolex will reimburse the travel expenses of the athlete/horse(s)/groom with a maximum amount of € 15,000 per horse, with a maximum of 2 horses per Athlete.

4. Rolex Grand Slam of Show Jumping Bonus

Rolex will reward in a bonus for the owner of the horse(s) in the case that an Athlete (not athlete/horse combination) is successful in more than one of the three successive Grand Prix. The bonus system is as follows:

Rolex Grand Slam of Show Jumping

- an Athlete wins only 2 successive Grand Prix, bonus of € 500,000
- or
- an Athlete wins all 3 successive Grand Prix in row, bonus of € 1,000,000
- or
- an Athlete wins only 2 Grand Prix in a period of three successive Events, bonus of € 250,000

The bonus cycle (three successive Events / Grand Prix) for each Athlete will start at the moment of her/his first win, regardless of the calendar year.

If an Athlete does not compete at one of the Events of the Rolex Grand Slam part of her/his cycle, she/he will not be able to qualify for any bonus for the owner(s).

In the case of a tie for the first place in a Grand Prix, both Athletes will have the right to start their bonus cycles. In the case of a tie for a bonus the bonus will be paid to the concerned owner(s) of the horses.

The bonus will be paid out after a full cycle (3 successive Grand Prix) has been completed and the result is definitely confirmed. The bonus will be paid out under Swiss tax regulations. The Athlete must be personally present at the prize-giving ceremony, which may take place at the Event where the cycle is completed or elsewhere. Rolex and the participating Events will have the right to use the pictures/images of the winner of a Rolex Grand Slam for their own public relations and communication.

5. General

These regulations must be read in conjunction with the FEI approved schedules of each participating Event in the Rolex Grand Slam of Show Jumping. The Rolex Grand Slam Steering Committee will decide any unforeseen or exceptional circumstance, which is not addressed by these regulations.

This committee will interpret them and render a decision in a manner compatible to the fullest extent possible with the other provisions of these regulations as well as sporting spirit.

Swiss law is applicable for these regulations. All disputes arising from these regulations shall be decided by the CAS in Lausanne.

December 12, 2014