CHAPTER 1 – LEGAL AND STATUTORY BASIS

- 1.1. The Board decides unanimously, based on the relevant articles of the Swiss Civil Code, and on Article 20.1 of the Statutes, to adopt the present Internal Regulations.

The present Internal Regulations regulate the duties and powers of the following organs of the FEI:

- The Executive Board;
- The Board;
- The Headquarters;
- The Committees;
- The Regional Groups.

- 1.2. Capitalised terms not defined in these Internal Regulations shall have the meanings defined in the Statutes or in the General Regulations.

CHAPTER 2 – BOARD

Article 2.1. – General

Articles 19-25 of the FEI Statutes govern the composition, functions and powers, meetings, membership of and election to the FEI Board, and provide for representation of the FEI.

These Internal Regulations provide for the manner in which the above are implemented and exercised.

Board proceedings, whether in-person meetings, telephone or video conferences, via email exchanges, or on intra-/extra-net sites are confidential and therefore not subject to disclosure to third parties unless compelled by law. Communication of any information resulting from Board proceedings shall be in accordance with Article 2.6 below or an official process agreed by the President and Secretary General.

Article 2.2. – Meetings, convening of meetings, agenda

2.2.1 Process of Board Meetings

There shall be no fewer than two (2) Board meetings per year, one of which shall be held immediately preceding the General Assembly and at the same location. The second meeting shall be held ideally six months thereafter.

The President shall convene the Board meetings in coordination with the Secretary General.

2.2.2 Agenda of Board Meetings:

The agenda of Board meetings shall be set by the President upon proposal by the Secretary General of the items to be included in accordance with Article 20 of the Statutes. An item may be added to the Agenda by any two Board members acting together.

2.2.3 Publication of Agenda:

The Agenda of Board meetings shall be made available to National Federations no later than four (4) weeks preceding the meeting through publication on the FEI website.

Article 2.3. – Quorum of attendance

For any Board meeting to be validly convened and to pass resolutions, an absolute majority of all Board members with a right to vote must be present. If such Quorum is not reached, the Board meeting may still take place. Any resolutions proposed and voted upon at such meeting must be circulated to absent Board members with a request to cast their vote within one (1) week of the date of the Board meeting. If the total number of votes cast in person and by correspondence exceeds the number required to form a Quorum, the vote will be regarded as having been validly cast at the Board meeting.

The use of telephone, conference calls and videoconferencing is permissible where appropriate.

Article 2.4. – Vote, majority required

According to Article 21.4 of the Statutes, the passing of resolutions by the Board shall require the approval of a Simple Majority of the members of the Board who are present.

Resolutions take effect immediately upon approval unless otherwise specified.

Article 2.5. – Resolutions by way of correspondence

Resolutions may be passed by correspondence. In such cases, a Simple Majority of all Board members with the right to vote shall be required. The use of email and other generally accepted electronic communications means is permissible where appropriate.

Article 2.6. – Minutes of meetings

Minutes must be kept of the deliberations and resolutions of the Board. The Minutes shall contain a summary of the deliberations, the proposed resolutions, the declarations which a member requests to be recorded in the Minutes, and the resolutions with the result of the vote.

The Minutes are submitted to the Board for review. The Minutes are then signed by the Chair of the meeting and the Secretary General.

The resolutions approved by way of correspondence must be included in the Minutes of the next meeting.

Minutes of Board meetings shall be made available to all Board members and NFs via an FEI website and/or email no later than six (6) weeks following the meeting. Minutes must not contain any confidential information.

Article 2.7. – Right of information and inspection

Board members may request to review any FEI documents subject to reasonable notice given to the Secretary General and subject to confidentiality restrictions, as determined by the President and Secretary General.

Article 2.8. – Expenses of the members of the Board

The reasonable expenses of Board members in connection with FEI matters shall be covered by the FEI in accordance with a policy set by the Secretary General and approved by the Board.

Article 2.9. – Honorary Membership

The President, upon the approval of a majority of the Board may appoint former Presidents to be Honorary Presidents, former Vice Presidents to be Honorary Vice Presidents, and other former Members of the Board who have given special service to the FEI to be Honorary Members of the Board. Any such appointment may be put to the General Assembly for approval. Honorary membership carries no voting rights.

CHAPTER 3 – RETAINED POWERS OF THE BOARD

Article 3.1. – Powers of the Board

The Board has the functions and powers enumerated in Article 20 of the Statutes. Other than those delegated to Headquarters under Section 5, it specifically retains the power:

- 3.1.1. To issue policies and the strategy to be implemented by Headquarters;
- 3.1.2. To ultimately oversee the Headquarters;
- 3.1.3. To issue and modify these Internal Regulations.

Article 3.2. – Exclusive Powers

The Board retains the exclusive power to, subject to any mandate to the Executive Board:

- 3.2.1 Examine, if required, the professional qualifications of the specially qualified Auditor;
- 3.2.2 Employ and to dismiss, upon proposal of the Secretary General, all employees having the position of Executive Director or a higher position in the FEI's hierarchy ("Senior Management");
- 3.2.3 Supervise the keeping of the list of members by the Headquarters;

3.2.4 Decide about any single financial commitment of the FEI which exceeds fifty thousand (50'000) Swiss francs;

3.2.5 Create, acquire, sell or dissolve subsidiary companies or divisions of the FEI, real estate (with the exception of HM King Hussein I Building as provided under Article 4 of the Statutes), intellectual property or other substantial assets;

3.2.6 Approve credit or loan agreements on behalf of the FEI, whether as lender or as borrower, other than lines of credit necessary for treasury cash management purposes not to exceed two million Swiss francs;

3.2.7 Approve guarantee or security agreements in excess of fifty thousand (50'000) Swiss francs;

3.2.8 Approve contracts exceeding a period of three (3) years;

3.2.9 Approve contracts of an amount exceeding fifty thousand (50'000) Swiss francs;

3.2.10 Approve the FEI investment policy and approve any individual investments outside the scope of the policy;

3.2.11 Exercise the right to vote in shareholders' meetings of companies in which the FEI holds shares, other than for voting rights arising from FEI asset management, further to the approved investment policy;

3.2.12 Make recommendations to those persons who represent the FEI in the Board or in any other organ of an entity in which the FEI holds shares;

3.2.13 Approve any deviation from the approved budget for the current year, not to exceed 5 per cent of total annual expenditures.

The Board has the power to adopt resolutions in all matters which do not fall within the powers of the General Assembly or any other organ by virtue of law, of the Statutes or of applicable regulations.

CHAPTER 4 – ROLES OF THE BOARD MEMBERS AND EXECUTIVE BOARD

Article 4.1. – Role of the President

The President will lead the FEI and chair all General Assemblies and Board meetings in accordance with Articles 15 and 22 of the Statutes. The President may, from time to time, delegate Presidential tasks and responsibilities to the Vice Presidents or other Board members as required. Such delegation, in terms of scope and timeframe shall be set out in writing.

Article 4.2. – Roles of the Vice Presidents

The role of the two Vice Presidents is referred to in Articles 15 and 22 of the Statutes. The Vice Presidents will undertake tasks and responsibilities as directed by the President in writing.

Article 4.3. – Roles of the Group Chairs

The Group Chairs represent their respective Regional Groups and thereby the interests of the National Federations within their Groups according to Article 23 of the Statutes. Their tasks and responsibilities shall be:

4.3.1. To attend and be present throughout Board Meetings, General Assemblies and all meetings related to their function;

4.3.2. To be aware of all FEI activities (Sport, FEI Solidarity, Legal, Veterinary, etc.) in order to help the National Federations in their Group to further develop;

4.3.3. To drive, promote, co-ordinate and report on FEI initiatives through the National Federations in their Groups;

4.3.4. To communicate as necessary with National Federations, FEI Headquarters and other Group Chairs and Technical Committee Chairs;

4.3.5. To advise and inform National Federations on all FEI matters, including after Board meetings and General Assemblies;

4.3.6. To know the needs of their Group;

4.3.7. To act as mediator in case of conflict within their Group;

4.3.8. To appoint coordinators within the Group if necessary;

4.3.9. To cooperate with regional FEI Solidarity Officers appointed by the FEI, including but not limited to those for specific Disciplines;

4.3.10. To organise regular Group meetings and to provide Headquarters with (i) the agenda at least two (2) weeks beforehand, and (ii) the minutes of their meetings within three (3) weeks thereof;

4.3.11. To organise, in close proximity prior to the General Assembly, a meeting with the National Federations in their Group and to inform the Board of any concerns and/or issues and present them to the Board for discussion where appropriate;

4.3.12. To attend and participate actively in workshops, and other such meetings in the context of the FEI General Assembly or other functions;

4.3.13. To facilitate the publication of a Group newsletter, Annual Report and/or Bulletin; and

4.3.14. To nominate a Deputy Chair from among the National Federations of the Regional Group for election by the General Assembly, with whom they shall work closely and cooperate in furtherance of the tasks and responsibilities above. The Deputy Chair shall not be from the same National Federation as the Chair, and shall attend Board meetings with a vote solely in the event of unavoidable absence of the Group Chair. Deputy Chairs can serve a maximum of three (3) full Terms before a compulsory break of at least four (4) years.~~The Term of the Deputy Chair shall match the Term of the Chair.~~

Article 4.4. – Roles of the Technical Chairs

The Technical Chairs represent their Committees and thereby the interests of their given Discipline. Their tasks and responsibilities shall be:

4.4.1. To chair and oversee the applicable Technical Committee in order to comply with its responsibilities under Article 34 of the Statutes, including coordinating the Committee's activities to provide input;

4.4.2. To maintain continuous contact with the Department Director for their Discipline at Headquarters, and through them with the FEI Headquarters;

4.4.3. To chair at least one (1) Committee meeting per year unless otherwise specified by the Secretary General through Department Director for their Discipline at Headquarters;

4.4.4. To attend and be present throughout Board Meetings, General Assemblies and all meetings related to their function;

4.4.5. To be aware of all FEI activities of the FEI Headquarters in order to help their Discipline to further develop;

4.4.6. To communicate with Headquarters, Group Chairs and other Technical Committee Chairs;

4.4.7. To act as mediator in case of conflict within their Committee;

4.4.8. To attend and participate actively in applicable FEI Solidarity forums, workshops, and other such meetings in the context of the FEI General Assembly or other functions; and

4.4.9. To appoint a Deputy Chair from among the members of the Committee, with whom they shall work closely and cooperate in furtherance of the tasks and responsibilities above. The Deputy Chair shall attend Board meetings solely in the event of unavoidable absence of the Technical Chair. The Deputy Chair may not vote at Board meetings.

Article 4.5. – Role of the Executive Board

4.5.1 The Role of the Executive Board:

The role of the Executive Board is set forth in Article 27 of the Statutes.

4.5.2 Process of Executive Board meetings:

At the request of the President of the FEI, on behalf of the Board, the Secretary General shall convene a meeting of the Executive Board.

Whenever possible, all Executive Board meetings should take place in the HM King Hussein I Building or by video or teleconferencing.

Minutes of the meetings shall be kept under the supervision of the Secretary General.

CHAPTER 5 – HEADQUARTERS

Article 5.1. – Delegation of Responsibilities to the Secretary General

The Board delegates the following duties and responsibilities to the Secretary General:

5.1.1 To propose and implement the general and commercial strategy as well as the framework of the FEI's activities, in accordance with the resolutions taken by the Board and General Assembly;

5.1.2 To establish general conditions of commercialisation of the FEI properties in line with the core values of the FEI;

5.1.3 To propose and establish the policies relating to membership fees, organisational dues and other financial charges affecting FEI members, in accordance with the resolutions taken by the General Assembly and the Board;

5.1.4 To negotiate and to sign contracts (subject to any limitations set forth in Section 3 above) regarding the commercialisation of FEI properties, including but not limited to licensing arrangements, and to supervise the performance of these contracts;

5.1.5 To fix the employment conditions of the staff, to take all decisions regarding its employment or dismissal (the power of the Board according to Section-Chapter 3 being reserved concerning Senior Management);

5.1.6 To establish the yearly budget of income and expenditure forecast of the FEI which it submits to the Board at the beginning of each applicable annual cycle;

5.1.7 To establish the financial plan and to submit it to the Board at the beginning of each year for approval;

5.1.8 To propose and implement the strategy of management of the FEI's funds and liabilities in accordance with resolutions taken by the General Assembly and the Board;

5.1.9 To establish the yearly balance sheet and the profit and loss statement as well as to draft the business report in view of its approval by the Board;

- 5.1.10 To implement the resolutions of the General Assembly and the Board;
- 5.1.11 To maintain the list of affiliated members;
- 5.1.12 To report to the Board in accordance with section 7 of these Internal Regulations;
- 5.1.13 To supervise in general the activities of the FEI, its debtors and the FEI's liabilities;
- 5.1.14 To establish any additional internal regulations or policies necessary to a smooth operation of the FEI, such as but not limited to a personnel handbook, evaluation processes, etc.;
- 5.1.15 To inform the Board of any employment or dismissal of employees having the position of Department Director or a higher position in the FEI's hierarchy;
- 5.1.16 To manage the FEI staff in line with the objectives approved by the Board.

Any other responsibilities which are not listed here are exclusively retained by the Board.

Article 5.2. – Internal Organisation of Headquarters

The management consists of the Secretary General, the Executive Directors and the Directors identified on the Organisation Chart attached as Appendix 1 to these Internal Regulations, which governs reporting and subordination relationships.

5.2.1 Department Directors for Technical Disciplines

The Department Directors for Technical Disciplines shall manage, in close cooperation with the relevant Technical Committee Chair:

- i. Amendments to the relevant Sport Rules or Regulations;
- ii. Management of international Events in their respective Discipline(s) and appointment of Official as per the FEI Rules and Regulations;
- iii. Development of their respective Discipline(s) and appoint the Course Director General; and,
- iv. The education system, the course calendar and the monitoring of FEI officials.

The Department Directors shall consider, review and act upon, as applicable, any proposals presented by the relevant Technical Committee members. Any proposals for changes to the Sport Rules put forward by the Department Director for the affected Discipline shall have the Support of the Technical Committee, acting through its Chair, else alternative views should be presented to the Board for Decision. FEI Directors (or their department representatives) must convene and attend all Standing Committee meetings.

The Department Directors shall oversee and manage the day to day work of their respective Departments.

The Department Directors shall produce for the Secretary General a yearly management plan for their respective Departments and further provide quarterly updates in terms of achievement within this plan. This plan shall integrate the relevant Technical Committee's advice and proposals.

Article 5.3. – Signature rights

The individuals holding the positions listed in Appendix 2 to the present Internal Regulations shall have the authority to bind the FEI through their signature. Signature rights are conferred such that two (2) individuals holding the positions listed must always sign collectively. None shall have an individual signature right. The signature rights listed in Appendix 2 shall be reflected in the Swiss Commercial Register. The Board or the Executive Board shall confirm the names of such individuals as necessary and it shall be minuted. If the power to sign is conferred upon employees or agents other than management, they shall have no power to sign between themselves.

CHAPTER 6 – COMMITTEES ~~AND ADVISORY BODIES~~

Article 6.1. – Nominations Committee

6.1.1 Role and Composition

The Nominations Committee shall receive nominations for all positions on the Board, Committees, the FEI Tribunal, and Deputy Chairs of Regional Groups and make recommendations to the Board and/or General Assembly, as appropriate based on objective eligibility criteria for each position provided by the Board. It shall report to the Board.

The Nominations Committee is composed of nine members:

- i. Each Group shall select one (1) representative from a National Federation in its Group (2 representatives in the case of the European Equestrian Federation (EEF) Regional Group) who is not a Group Chair or Deputy Chair and who does not hold a position on a Committee or on the Board. The process of election is described in Article 8 of Annex I of the FEI Statutes.
- ii. The Board shall elect a Chair for a term of four (4) years.

The President and the Secretary General or their delegates may attend meetings of the Nominations Committee.

The Nominations Committee meets at least once annually to evaluate Candidates. The Nominations Committee shall duly consider regional representation, gender balance, experience, and the occupation of each candidate for any given position.

Meetings may validly be held via videoconference or conference call when appropriate.

6.1.2 Nominations Committee Procedure

The Secretary General shall establish and communicate as relevant the processes for the Nominations Committee to fulfil its role, which will include the following concepts:

- i. For all positions, Headquarters informs all National Federations of the final date for submission of nominations;
- ii. Nominations received by the Headquarters should be circulated to the members of the Nominations Committee and relevant Standing Committees, and Tribunal where applicable;
- iii. As soon as is practicable following the annual Standing Committees' meetings, each Standing Committee will communicate their comments and considerations for each individual candidate and may if they so wish specify which candidate has the unanimous support of that Committee and the reasons why;
- iv. For all applications, the Nominations Committee then screens each candidate to ensure their compliance with the objective eligibility criteria for each position as provided by the Board;
- v. The Nominations Committee will then make a recommendation to the Board in terms of those candidates who meet the criteria and comment with regard to any candidate that may have received the unanimous Support of a particular Standing Committee. In addition, the Nominations Committee may recommend a candidate that, in its view, is best qualified for a position.
- vi. The Nominations Committee may, as appropriate, make recommendations as to candidates for General Assembly elections.

6.1.3 Role of the Nominations Committee Chair

- i. To liaise with the Secretary General and Standing Committee Chairs to clearly establish the vacancies existing and receive instruction on the detailed criteria which should apply to each such position;
- ii. To ensure that all members of the Nominations Committee receive full documentation in terms of applications and criteria applicable for each position with sufficient time prior to any meeting of the Nominations Committee;
- iii. To Chair the Nominations Committee meeting, to be held at a time and in a place indicated by the Secretary General;
- iv. On behalf of the Nominations Committee members to communicate the recommendations to the Board and/or General Assembly.
- v. The Chair shall appoint a Deputy Chair with the approval of the Nominations Committee, with whom the Chair shall work closely with and cooperate with in furtherance of their tasks and responsibilities below.

Minutes of the meetings shall be kept under the supervision of the Chair of the Nominations Committee. Nominations Committee proceedings, whether in-person meetings, by teleconference or video conferences, via email exchanges, or on intra-/extra-net sites, are confidential and therefore not subject to disclosure to third parties unless compelled by law.

~~6.5.3 Chairs of the Discipline Committees who are not Board members may attend the Board meetings held in conjunction with the ordinary annual General Assembly.~~

Article 6.6. – FEI Solidarity Committee

The FEI Solidarity Committee shall be composed of the Chair and a minimum of four (4) other members preferably with proven knowledge and experience in development, education and equestrian sport. The President shall appoint the members of the FEI Solidarity Committee, as applicable, for approval by the General Assembly.

The FEI Solidarity Committee issues its own internal regulations setting forth its organisation and processes.

Article 6.7. – Youth

Youth shall be the competence of Discipline Committees and each Discipline Committee shall have Youth as a mandatory Agenda item for each meeting.

Article 6.8. – Medical Committee

The Medical Committee shall be responsible for the following matters:

6.8.1. Acting as the Therapeutic Use Exemption (“TUE”) Panel of the FEI according to the FEI Anti-Doping Rules for Human Athletes, and thereby evaluating and deciding on the approval or denial of TUE requests;

6.8.2. Advising Headquarters on matters relating to the health and safety of Athletes and on all matters related to human anti-doping testing.

The Medical Committee shall be composed of the Chair and ~~three-five (53)~~ other members. Three (3) members, including the Chair, shall be medical doctors with significant experience in sports medicine, and preferably Equestrian Sport. The Medical Committee shall strive to have one (1) representative from the Athlete’s community. The three (3) medical doctors shall constitute the TUE Panel.

Article 6.9. – Athletes’ Committee

6.9.1 Role

- i. The Athletes’ Committee is a consultative body of the FEI and a link between the active Athletes and the FEI.
- ii. It ensures that the Athletes’ points of view are taken into account in FEI decisions.
- iii. It ensures respect of the rights of the Athletes within Equestrian Sport and draws up recommendations to that effect.
- iv. During FEI Championships, FEI World Equestrian Games and the Olympic Games a representative of the Athletes Committee from each relevant participating Discipline may be present to be at the Athletes’ disposal.

- v. The Athletes' Committee forwards its recommendations/proposals to the Board through the Chair of the Athlete's Committee subject to the approval, after discussion within the Athletes' Committee, of the majority of the members present.

6.9.2 Composition

The Athletes' Committee is composed of the Athlete's representative for each Discipline Committees and a Chair appointed by the Board. The Chair of the Athletes' Committee shall be a member of the Board and the Executive Board.

6.9.3 Meetings

The Athletes' Committee shall meet at the request of the Board if there are relevant items to be discussed.

The meetings are convened by the Chair of the Athletes' Committee through the Headquarters.

The agenda and the working documents as well as the Minutes of the meeting are prepared by the Headquarters at the request of the Chair.

6.9.4 Election

One Athlete shall be elected for each Discipline to serve as the Athlete representative on that Discipline's Technical Committee and to ultimately together form the Athletes Committee. These Athlete representatives shall be elected via an online vote by their peers.

In order to be entitled to vote Athletes must:

- Have represented their country in a team or individual competition at the Olympic Games or Paralympic Games or Continental Games or World Championships for Seniors or Continental Championships for Seniors in any of the eight (8) years preceding the date of the elections(including for the avoidance of doubt in the year of the election); and
- Be 18 years of age at the time of the vote.

In order to be eligible as Candidate Athletes must:

- Have represented their country in a team or individual competition at the Olympic Games or Paralympic Games or Continental Games or World Championships for Seniors or Continental Championships for Seniors in any of the eight (8) years preceding the date of the elections(including for the avoidance of doubt in the year of the election); and
- Be 18 years of age at the time of the vote; and
- Have not committed any violation of:
 - o The FEI Equine Anti-Doping Rules or the FEI Anti-Doping Rules for Human Athletes within the previous 10 years*
 - o The FEI Equine Controlled Medication Rules within the previous 4 years*:

*A violation for which the Athlete has established No Fault or Negligence shall not be considered a prior violation for purposes of this criteria. An elected Athlete representative shall immediately be removed from the Athlete's Committee if he/she commits a violation of the FEI EADCMR or the FEI ADRHA during their Term (a violation for which the Athlete has established No Fault or Negligence shall not be considered a violation).

In the event an Athlete Representative is unable to complete a Term, the Board will appoint a replacement until the next elections, in consultation with the official athlete organisation for the Discipline recognised by the FEI. In the absence of an official athlete organisation for the Discipline, the Board will appoint a replacement until the next elections.

The FEI Headquarters shall establish and communicate as relevant the procedure for the election for the Athletes' representatives on the Discipline Committees.

Article 6.10. – Competition Committees

6.10.1 On the request of Headquarters, the Board may establish Competition Committees, which shall advise Headquarters on the programme and conduct of FEI World Cups and other named FEI Events or Competitions as established by the Board.

6.10.2 The composition and duties of Competition Committees are defined in the relevant special regulations established by Headquarters and approved by the Board, to include, where appropriate, relevant members of FEI staff, Board, Committees and Commissions.

CHAPTER 7 – DUTY TO REPORT

The Headquarters reports through the Secretary General to the Executive Board and/or the Board at each Executive Board and/or Board meeting about the evolution of the business and the most important events regarding the FEI.

Apart from the meetings, each member of the management reports immediately any extraordinary event and any change within the FEI to the Secretary General who shall immediately inform the President.

The Secretary General has the general duty to inform the Executive Board and the Board about the evolution of the results compared with the annual plan including the budget, sport and development targets. The Secretary General provides the Executive Board and/or Board as necessary with regular reports and information, which shall include at least one quarterly report.

Whenever relevant, the Secretary General must further report to the Executive and/or the Board on any of the following matters:

- i. General strategy of the FEI from the Headquarters' point of view (as a basis for discussion and decision-making by the Board);

- ii. Short-term forecasts and measures considered by the Headquarters;
- iii. General financial situation of the FEI including key figures;
- iv. Extraordinary and material investments and divestments;
- v. Financial planning and control;
- vi. Personnel policy and planning.

Committee Chairs shall report to the Department Directors within the guidelines of the annual management plan, and as appropriate at meetings of the Board.

CHAPTER 8 – ABSTENTION IN CASE OF CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The members of the Board, FEI Directors and above and all Committee, Sub-Committee and Working Group members must refrain from dealing or voting on objects in which their own interests or the interests of persons or corporate bodies related to them are involved, and shall agree to be bound by the FEI Code of Ethics and Conflict of Interest Policy (Appendix 3 to these Internal Regulations) and any other applicable FEI code of conduct.

Board and Committee members shall abide by the specific Sport Rules on officiating when fulfilling any technical duties at FEI Events. Where such a role might be or appear to be in conflict with their responsibilities as members of the Board or a Committee, such conflict should be specifically disclosed to other Board members sufficiently prior to the Event to allow for comment and recusal if requested. Board members cannot officiate at World and Continental Championships, FEI World Cup™ Finals, FEI Nations Cup™ Finals, Olympic Games, Paralympics and Regional Games.

CHAPTER 9 – FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 9.1. – Entry into force

These Internal Regulations shall come into force immediately following the session at which they are adopted.

Article 9.2. – Implementing regulations

The Headquarters shall establish the necessary regulations to carry out its duties.

The Headquarters has no authority to delegate those powers and duties which these Internal Regulations have conferred upon organs of the FEI.

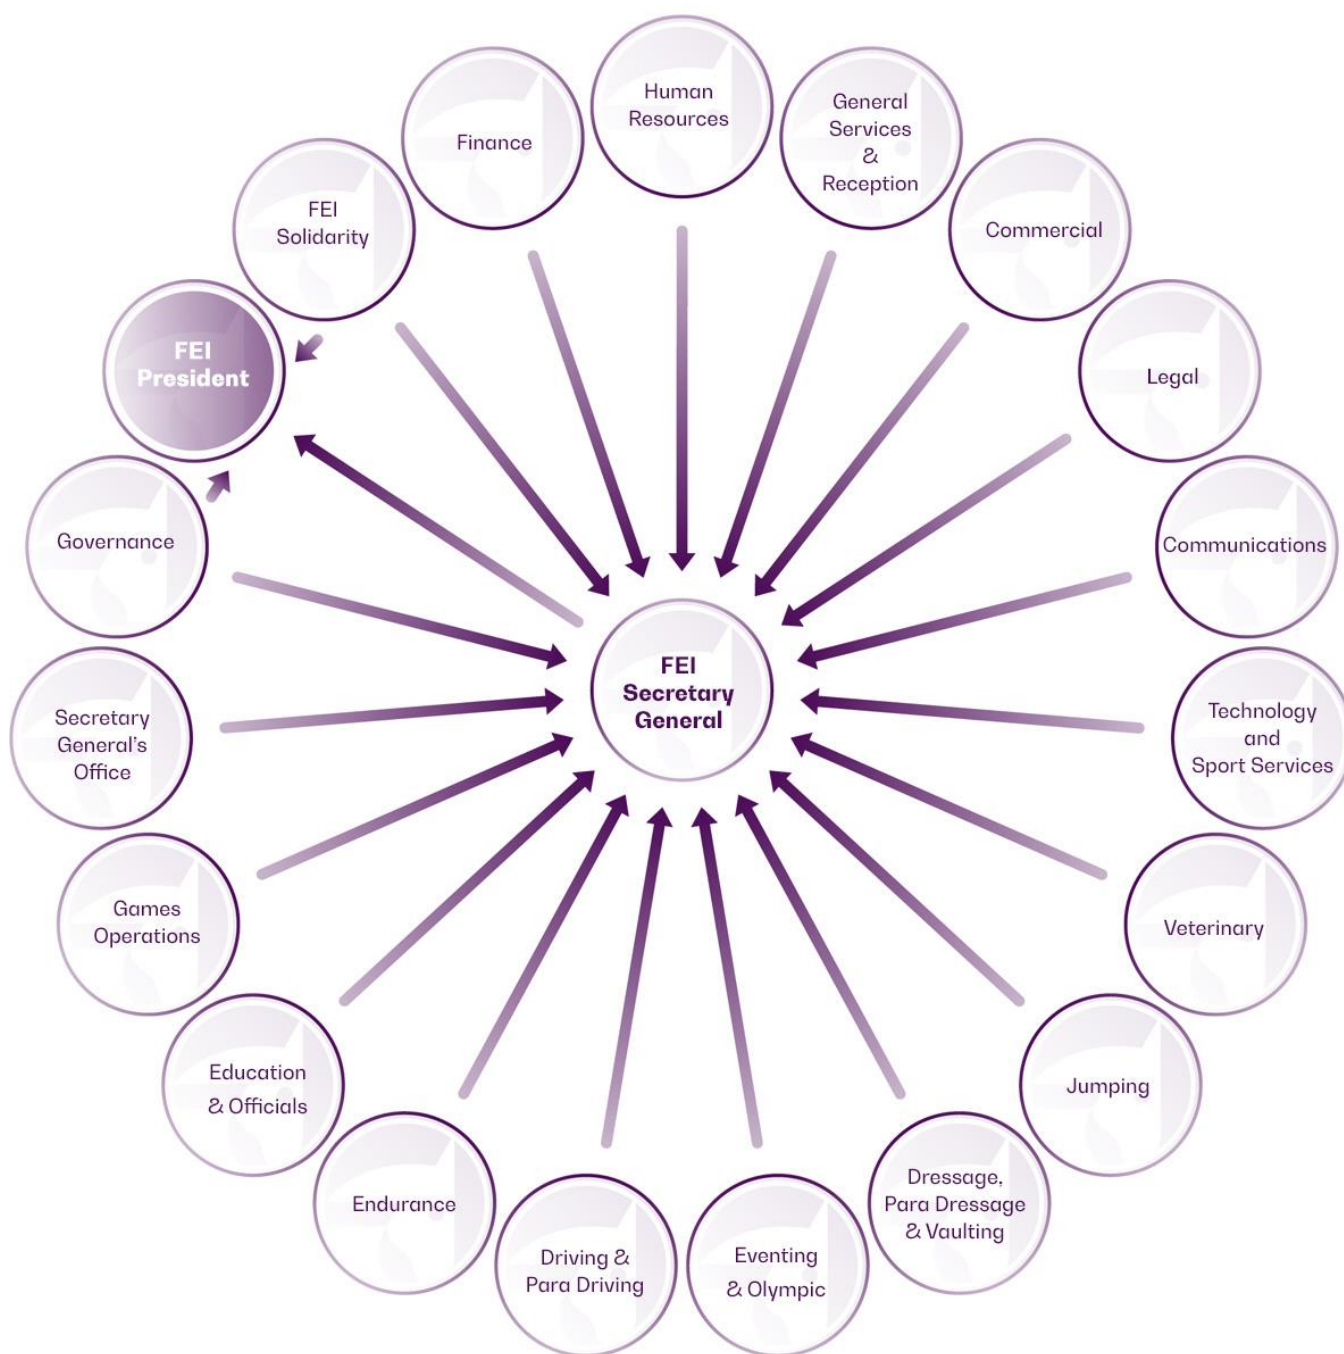

Article 9.3. – Revision and modifications

These Internal Regulations shall be reviewed as often as necessary by the Board, and no less than once (1) every two (2) years. They are effective upon adoption by the Board and submitted to the General Assembly for approval according to Art. 10.1 (xvi) Statutes.

Proposals for modification must be received by the Secretary General within deadlines set by their office prior to Board meetings.

Appendix 1 – Organisation chart

Appendix 2 – Signature rights

The individuals holding the positions listed below and reflected in the Swiss Commercial Register shall have the authority to bind the FEI through their signature:

- i. President
- ii. Secretary General
- iii. Legal Director
- iv. Chief Financial Officer
- v. Commercial Director

1. Two (2) of the above-mentioned individuals holding such positions must always sign collectively and none may sign individually, and one of the two (2) signatures must be that of the President or the Secretary General.

2. All contracts must be reviewed by and have the approval of the Finance and Legal departments prior to signature, and such approval must be written (initialled). Where the contract is signed by the Chief Financial Officer and/or Legal Director, the signature indicates approval of the respective (financial or legal) terms.

Appendix 3 – Code of Ethics and Conflict of Interest Policy with Disclosure Statement

FEI CODE OF ETHICS

To recognize the interests of all the constituencies of equestrianism including National Federations, Athletes, Owners, Organisers, Officials, sponsors, and the FEI itself to foster their harmonious collaboration and to formalise the collective commitment to the Olympic ideal.

The achievement of this goal and the image of Equestrian Sport are dependent on the respect of the following ethical principles that are compatible with maintenance of the values, spirit and ideals of Equestrian Sport and its part in the Olympic Movement.

Consequently, all participants in Equestrian Sport, including but not limited to Athletes (and their Support Personnel), Owners, Organisers, Officials, sponsors, and FEI volunteers and staff undertake to respect and be bound at all times by the present Code.

A. DIGNITY

1. Safeguarding the dignity of the equine and human Athlete is a fundamental requirement of equestrianism.
2. There shall be no discrimination between the human Athletes on the basis of race, gender, ethnic origin, religion, philosophical or political opinion, marital status or other grounds.
3. All doping practices at all levels are strictly prohibited. The provisions against doping in the Equine Anti-Doping and Controlled Medication Regulations and the FEI Anti-Doping Rules for Human Athletes shall be scrupulously observed.
4. All forms of harassment of Athletes, be it physical, professional or sexual, and any physical or mental injuries to participants, are prohibited.
5. All forms of participation in, or support for betting on the Olympic Games, and all forms of promotion of betting related to the Olympic Game are prohibited.
6. Also, in the context of betting, participants in the Olympic Games and FEI Events must not, by any manner whatsoever, infringe the principle of fair play, show non-sporting conduct, or attempt to influence the result of a competition in a manner contrary to sporting ethics.
7. FEI constituents shall guarantee the Athletes conditions of safety, well-being and medical care favourable to their physical and mental equilibrium.

B. INTEGRITY

1. FEI representatives shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit, accept or offer any form of personal remuneration or commission, nor any concealed benefit or service of any nature, connected with the organisation of FEI Events that is not part of the official negotiation process or set forth in the contract with the Organiser or Organising Committee.

2. Only gifts of nominal value, in accordance with prevailing local customs, may be given or accepted by FEI Board members, FEI volunteers, or FEI staff by or to any member of an Organising Committee bidding for an FEI Event, as a mark of respect or friendship. Any other gift must be passed on to the organisation of which the beneficiary is a member.

3. The hospitality shown by any Organising Committee bidding for an FEI Event to the volunteers and members of FEI staff as well as persons accompanying them, shall not exceed the standards prevailing in the host country.

4. Conflicts of interest, whether real or perceived, are to be avoided;

5. Even the appearance of misconduct or impropriety should be recognized as damaging to the FEI's reputation, and should therefore be avoided.

6. FEI constituents must not be involved with organisations, firms or persons whose activity or reputation is inconsistent with the principles set out in the present Code.

C. GOOD GOVERNANCE AND RESOURCES

1. The basic universal principles of good governance of the FEI, in particular transparency, responsibility and accountability, must be respected by all FEI constituents.

2. The resources available to FEI volunteers and staff may be used only for FEI purposes.

3. The FEI's income and expenditures shall be recorded in its accounts, which must be maintained in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An independent auditor will check these accounts.

4. In cases where the FEI gives financial support to any National Federation, Organising Committee, or other person or entity:

- a. the use of these FEI resources must be clearly demonstrated in the accounts of the recipient;
- b. the accounts of the recipient may be subjected to auditing by an expert designated by the FEI Executive Board upon reasonable notice to the recipient.

5. FEI constituents recognise the significant contribution that broadcasters, sponsors, partners and other supporters of equestrian events make to the development and prestige of FEI Events throughout the world. However, such support must be in a form consistent with the rules of sport and the principles defined in the FEI Rules and Regulations, the Olympic Charter and the present Code. They must not interfere in the running of the sport. The organisation and staging of Equestrian competitions are the exclusive responsibility of the FEI and, where appropriate of the National Federations and/or Organisers recognised by the FEI.

D. BIDDING FOR CHAMPIONSHIPS/EVENTS

The documents and/or information published by the FEI linked to the selection of host Organisers of the FEI World Equestrian Games/FEI Championships and FEI World Cup Finals shall be respected. The cities wishing to organise these FEI events shall, refrain from approaching another party, or a third authority, with a view to obtaining any financial or political support inconsistent with the provisions of such documents and/or information and/or the present Code.

E. RELATIONS WITH STATES

1. National Federations and/or Organising Committees shall work to maintain harmonious relations with state authorities, in accordance with the principles of universality and political neutrality.
2. National Federations and/or Organising Committees are free to play a role in the public life of the states to which they belong. They may not, however, engage in any activity or follow any ideology inconsistent with the principles and rules defined in the Olympic Charter and set out in the present Code.
3. National Federations and/or Organising Committees shall endeavour to protect the environment on the occasion of any events they organise.

F. CONFIDENTIALITY

FEI constituents shall not disclose information entrusted to them in confidence. Disclosure of other information shall not be for personal gain or benefit, nor be undertaken maliciously to damage the reputation of any person or organisation.

G. IMPLEMENTATION

1. The FEI Headquarters shall see to it that the principles and rules of FEI Rules and Regulations, the Olympic Charter and the present Code are applied.
2. The FEI Headquarters shall inform the FEI President of any breach of the present Code, with a view to possible referral to an FEI Ethics Panel or the Equestrian Community Integrity Unit.
3. The FEI Executive Board may, if it wishes, set out the provisions for the implementation of the present Code in a set of Implementing Provisions.

The principles listed above form the FEI Code of Ethics which all FEI constituents must comply with as a condition of representing or participating in FEI activities in any form and under any circumstances.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The appearance of impropriety can be as damaging as actual impropriety to the FEI's reputation. As a result, this policy is designed in such a way that compliance therewith will avoid, to the fullest practicable extent, both the perception and incidence of improper situations. A substantial appearance of a conflict of interest exists whenever others may reasonably infer from the given circumstances that a conflict exists.

A conflict of interest is defined as any personal or financial relationship, including relationships of family members that could influence or be perceived to influence objectivity when representing or conducting business or other dealings for or on behalf of the FEI. Family members include a spouse, parent, child or spouse of a child, sibling, spouse of a sibling, cohabitating companion or any other individual with a significant familial or familial-like relationship.

On an annual basis and more often as necessary, each FEI Board Member, Member of a Technical or Standing Committee or Sub-Committee thereof, other member of a body or group designated by any of the former to act on behalf of or advise the FEI (including but not limited to working groups and task forces), and senior FEI employees ("FEI Representatives") must disclose any conflict by submitting the appropriate form to the FEI Secretary General. Senior FEI employees are department heads or anyone exercising substantially similar decision-making discretion. The FEI Secretary General must submit a copy of the appropriate form to the President.

PROCEDURE

Any FEI Representative with a conflict of interest with respect to a given person or concern must:

1. Disclose the interest to the FEI Secretary General, who shall have the authority to either:
 - a. approve or disapprove the relationship if with respect to an employee other than the Secretary Generals themselves;
 - b. refer the matter to the FEI Tribunal.
2. Not be present during or participate in any formal or informal discussions related to the relationship between the FEI and the person or concern unless and until notified by the FEI Secretary General or the FEI Tribunal; and
3. Not be present during any discussion and abstain from voting and from influencing the vote on any matter related to the person or concern.

The Secretary General may disclose decisions taken under 1(a) or 1(b) above in the interest of transparency.

If a conflict of interest involves the Secretary General, the matter shall be referred to the FEI Tribunal by the President.

ENFORCEMENT

Any person who violates or condones a violation of this policy is subject to disciplinary measures which may include termination of employment and/or expulsion from the Board, Executive Board, Committee, Subcommittee, or other relevant body including but not limited to working groups or task forces. The FEI Secretary General shall review all violations of this policy and, if appropriate:

1. As to volunteers, refer the matter to the FEI Tribunal for determination of what, if any disciplinary action should be taken; or
2. As to staff, sanction the individual in accordance with the Federation's standard employment practices.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

1. Do you or a member of your immediate family transact business with or provide services to the FEI, one of its National Federations, an organiser of FEI events, and/or a sponsor of FEI Events? Please list the relevant entities or persons below and describe the dealings. If none, please state "none".

2. Are you or a member of your immediate family an officer, partner, director, trustee, owner (in the case of public companies, of at least 5% of total equity), beneficial owner, consultant or employee of any person or entity that does business with or provides services to the FEI, one of its National Federations, an organiser of FEI events, and/or a sponsor of FEI events? Please list the relevant entities or persons below and describe the dealings. If none, please state "none".

3. Is there any other relationship or matter not disclosed above that might be perceived to compromise your obligations to the FEI or its National Federations, competitors, owners, organisers, officials and/or sponsors? If none, please state "none".

I have read and understood the FEI Conflict of Interest Policy and certify that the answers to the questions above are complete and fully reflect any conflicts of interest as defined in this policy. I understand that this document must be submitted annually to the FEI Secretary General and that I have a responsibility to update it as often as necessary in the interim should my circumstances change. Refusal to provide the requested information, failure to timely update such information or provision of incomplete information is a violation of the policy and may result in removal from the Board, Executive Board, Committee, Subcommittee, or other relevant body including but not limited to working groups or task forces or employment.
