Antoine Goetschy became the Youth Olympic Games Associate Director in 2015.

Antoine began his career in the management and organisation of sports by being President of his Canoe Club in Lyon at the age of 18 some years later he moved to the National Federation and was the Director for two Olympics and finally Secretary General of the International Canoe Federation (ICF).

In 2007 Antoine began working for the International Olympic Committee overlooking the Competitions and Operations for Youth Olympic Games.

A 3 time White Water Kayaking World Champion Antoine’s passion for sport begun at a young age and is carried by him to this day on the Lac Léman. He also enjoys Cross-Country skiing and Mountain Biking.