

Therapeutic Use Exemption (TUE) process for Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games participants

1. Before the "Period of the Games" (= before 13 July 2021)

1.1 If the athlete already has a TUE:

- If the TUE complete file is in ADAMS:
 - No further action is required from the athlete.
 - The information is shared with the IOC and ITA through ADAMS.
 - All pre-existing TUEs will be reviewed and will be recognised if they have been granted in accordance with the anti-doping rules.

- If the complete file is not in ADAMS:
 - The TUE cannot be recognised
 - The file needs to be resubmitted as indicated in pt. 1.2 below.

1.2 If the athlete needs to obtain a new TUE:

The responsible organisation (IF or NADO) is in charge of TUE management and their procedures need to be followed. In order to find out which organisation is responsible, please refer to the TUE page on the FEI's website.

2. During the "Period of the Games" (= 13 July 2021-08 August 2021)

Athletes who need to obtain a new TUE must proceed as follows:

- The athlete and his/her physician must apply for the TUE at the dedicated office which will be in the Olympic village polyclinic in Tokyo.
- In cases where the athlete cannot be present, his/her physician should initiate the process at the TUE office.
- For any other cases a phone number will be made available during the Games Period which can be reached for guidance on the process.

Please also refer to the Tokyo 2020 doping control guide for information about the Games anti-doping programme and how it will be conducted.
