

IMPORTANT UPDATE ASIAN GAMES HANGZHOU – EQUESTRIAN Extension of FEI Nominated Entries for HORSES ONLY

HAGOC Accreditation deadline for all Asian Games athletes ended on May 20th, 2023. Only NOCs having entered Athletes by this date can participate in Hangzhou Asian Games Equestrian sports.

The deadline for the nomination of HORSES ONLY has been extended to 15 July 2023 at 24:00 (Beijing Time, GMT+8).

By this date all horses MUST in addition be entered on the FEI system on horse Entry forms available on the FEI website – (link here) up to 15 July 2023.

The HAGOC Entry by Name (Third Entry) deadline is 15 July 2023 through the HAGOC Entry System on NOC Entry forms (equivalent of FEI Definite Entries).

By this date, NOC/NF's must provide the final entries including the athletes and horses who will participate in the Asian Games.

- Dressage: Maximum 4 Athletes / horses combinations
- Eventing: Maximum 4 Athletes / horses combinations
- Jumping: Maximum 4 Athletes / horses combinations, plus one reserve horse.

It will be required to submit horses information in the Entry System as per the HAGOC Entry by Name Form for Horses, which includes horses' name, year of birth, breed (Stud book abbreviation), Horse ID Number, gender, color and so forth as the enclosed. Entries are to be made to HAGOC).

No changes or additions may be made to Athlete/horse combinations entered this list after 15 July 2023.

The entries made to the FEI will be published on the FEI website and will serve as main reference for the Asian Games Hangzhou Organising Committee and will include the Athletes and Horses from which teams or Individuals participating in the Hangzhou Asian Games can be substituted.

- A. all substitute athletes must be accredited and listed in the entry by 20 May 2023
- B. be complied with OCA's general policies of substitution;
- C. shall not have any penalties of Doping-control.