Dear Mrs. Schlaefli,

Following your e-mail from March 14th 2022, I am writing to you in order to confirm my most distinguished motivation concerning the representation of our sporting discipline of "Equestrian Endurance" within the International Equestrian Federation.

Wanting to be as close to the athletes as possible, as well as listening to their expectations, their concerns, their satisfactions is – to me – the key to maintaining and evolving our discipline in an innovative and modern manner. This while preserving the intrinsic qualities that characterize our noble discipline.

In continuous contact with my sports partners as well as coaches, I want to be the positive interface of our relationship with the International Federation.

Very concerned about the animals' welfare, especially that of our companions in this discipline, as well as to the Federal rules, I am sure to be suitable for this prestigious position.

Having gone through the most prestigious and innovative competitions of our rich discipline all over the world, and mindful to the contact with all of the protagonists of endurance (i.e. breeders, riders, trainers, judges, delegates, organizers), I am in a position to fulfill my future mission for the good of all, as a representative of our world in Equestrian Endurance.

I am therefore at the disposition of the International Equestrian Federation to continue the work undertaken.

Sincerely,

Barbara Oeggerli-Lissarague
