Introducing the Longines League of Nations™: A brand-new look for a new era of team Jumping

In a creative one-two punch, the highly anticipated Longines League of Nations™ series unveils its brand alongside an all-new digital hub today - a website designed to reflect the fresh, vibrant blueprint of the new series that kicks off in Abu Dhabi in February 2024.

VISIT the Longines League of Nations™ HUB for comprehensive information about the series, the rules, live results, all about the destinations of the qualifiers and Final, including ticket purchase options, and stay updated with the latest news, stories, and exclusive interviews from the series.

LONGINES LEAGUE OF NATIONS™

This will be a new chapter in the illustrious history of the FEI Jumping Nations Cup™, a competition steeped in tradition whose nation vs nation format dates back to its inception in 1909, and has played an invaluable role in the development of equestrian globally.

With this forward momentum comes a vibrant new look to the brand, which aims to epitomise the very best of team Jumping and a celebration of teamwork, excellence and unity, and a website that will be sure to make the series stand out visually, and enable fans from around the world to easily follow all the action... Pan American Games: Nominated Entries now available online

19 Nations for the 19th Pan American Games in Santiago (CHI)

19 nations have entered athletes across the three FEI disciplines – Jumping, Dressage and Eventing - at the Pan American Games 2023 taking place from 20 October to 05 November. Among these, Argentina, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Mexico, Uruguay and USA have athletes represented in all three disciplines. The deadline for the Definite Entries is 13 October – with final lists to be published here shortly thereafter.

The Pan American Games will also be the last qualifying opportunity for Paris 2024 team slots with the three highest placed teams in Jumping (not already qualified); and the top two teams in Eventing and Dressage (not already qualified) securing their tickets to Paris 2024!

REMINDER: FEI Driving Championships Format Survey

We would like to remind you about the ongoing opportunity to shape the future of FEI Driving Championships. The FEI Driving Technical Committee is conducting a comprehensive review of the FEI Driving Championship format, aiming to implement changes in 2026, following the extensive Full Rules Revision scheduled for 2025.

Key Subjects of the Survey:

1. Combined Championships Possibility
2. Continental Championships and World Championship:
3. Championships for Young Horses & Ponies:
4. Pony Championships
5. Different Formats

Survey Details:

- The survey is open until 10 October 2023.
- Access the survey using the following link: FEI Driving Championships Survey.

How Your Input Will Influence the Future:

The results of this survey will directly impact the Full Rules Revision scheduled for 2025. Your feedback will be instrumental during this critical process, ensuring that the updated rules and format reflect the collective wisdom and aspirations of our driving community. To learn more about the FEI Full Rule Revision Policy, please visit this link.

Thank you for your continued support and participation.
