IOC-DOW CARBON ACTION AWARD

We are pleased to inform you that the FEI has, once again, earned the IOC-Dow Carbon Action Award, which recognises the sustainability efforts of sports organisations within the Olympic Movement. This award reflects a very clear commitment on behalf of the FEI when it comes to sustainable initiatives and leadership as well as the collective efforts of the global equestrian community when it comes to innovative and environmental solutions.

Launched in 2019, the Awards programme was created to encourage sports organisations within the Olympic Movement to work towards reducing their greenhouse gas emissions. To be recognised, IFs and NOCs had to be signatories to the UN Sports for Climate Action Framework, which was launched by the IOC and the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) in 2018. Applicants were also required to present detailed data on their 2020 carbon footprint, as well as information on their carbon management and reduction plans.

Award recipients were announced during today's IOC Sustainability Session at the annual IF Forum, which was held online for the first time this year. A detailed press release is available here.

Season 3

Season three of the FEI eLeague has begun and once again everyone will have the possibility to judge during the FEI Dressage World Cup™ season 2020/2021. Show us how much you know about the FEI Dressage World Cup™ series by testing your knowledge and gathering points to win great prizes through the interactive quiz which will replace any cancelled events.

Detailed information can be found here.

FEI CAMPUS

New course

A new course is available on FEI Campus in the Equine Athlete hub, entitled:

Functional Anatomy of the Back

The horse's back plays a central role in almost every aspect of equine biomechanics. The interactions between muscles of the neck, back, trunk and pelvis play a crucial role in making horses the superb athletes that they are. In this course you will learn about:

- The various functions of the horse's back.
  - Which muscles, ligaments and fascia move and stabilise the spine.
  - How posture affects movement of the back and the horse as a whole, and
  - Which muscles groups are important for sustainably carrying a rider's weight.
- Click here to read more about it.

Eventing webinars

In order to assist Eventing Officials, Coaches and Athletes to better manage the risk in Eventing, a series of short videos have been produced with the help of our experts in the field.

Four webinars are already available:

- Coaching
- Control Centre
- Fence Judge Function
- Serious Incident Management Plan

And there will be more to come so stay tuned!
