FEI SOLIDARITY OFFICER APPOINTED

We are pleased to announce that Jean-Philippe Camboulives will take on the newly created role of FEI Solidarity Officer on 4 June 2012. Click here to see his key responsibilities.

Jean-Philippe has extensive experience in equestrian sports. He worked for the French Ministry of Sports as a National Technical Advisor for equestrian sports, a role he previously held at a regional level. Until 2001, he competed as a professional international Eventing and Jumping rider.

In addition to coaching Eventing teams in the Ukraine, Russia, Brazil, South Africa and Guatemala, Jean-Philippe led the Brazilian Eventing team to the Beijing Olympic Games and the South African Eventing team to the Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games 2010. He has also worked on numerous FEI development projects. Jean-Philippe is French and speaks Spanish and English. He will report to FEI Director of Solidarity Jacqueline Braissant and his position will involve evaluating and implementing FEI Solidarity projects.
