FEI WORLD EQUESTRIAN GAMES™ 2022

Bid process

As the FEI President informed the FEI General Assembly in Montevideo last week, the bid process for the hosting and organisation of the FEI World Equestrian Games™ 2022 (WEG 2022) is being re-opened and we would like to update you on the next steps.

"We are confident there will be candidates, but these are complex Games and we need to make sure we do it right", the FEI President said in Uruguay.

The bid process starts with an "Expression of Interest" (EOI) phase in order to gather worldwide interest before moving forward to the next stage of the Bid Process.

The EOI form should be filled in and returned to the FEI by 31 January 2018. Kindly note that this EOI is not a legally binding document and does not create legal obligations between you and the FEI; it is only a first step that will allow you to receive further bid information relating to the organisation of WEG 2022.

You will find more details, including the bid timeline and bid phase details, at the following link: FEI World Equestrian Games™ 2022.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the team overseeing bids at the FEI via Francisco P. Lima at bidding@fei.org.
