FEI SPORTS FORUM 2017

Registration opens today!

Registration for the FEI Sports Forum, taking place on 10-11 April 2017 at the International Management Development Institute (IMD) in Lausanne, opens today for National Federations, all FEI stakeholders, individuals and media representatives. The first day of the FEI Sports Forum is dedicated to Jumping sessions and in particular the FEI Nations Cup™ Jumping series, CSI/CSIO Requirements, the CSI Invitation system and Jumping Youth Development while day two focusses on the following topics: FEI Officials Working Group, risk factors and bone injuries in Endurance, Eventing risk assessment and findings from the Dressage Judges Working Group.

You will find all the relevant information regarding the timetable, the sessions, accommodation and registration at inside.fei.org on the dedicated FEI Sports Forum platform. Additional supporting documents relating to the various sessions will also be posted on 13 March 2017.

Since being launched in 2012, the FEI Sports Forum has become an essential tool in our decision making process and an important platform for dialogue and consultation with the community. We encourage all interested parties to join in and make these discussions as interactive and far reaching. For those unable to attend, we will also be streaming all our sessions live on inside.fei.org and the FEI YouTube channel, providing viewers the opportunity to ask their questions directly to the panels and experts.

Do not miss this unique opportunity to contribute to discussions that will help shape the future of our sport. Please remember to register online before 20 March 2017. After this date, all registrations will be subject to availability.

DRESSAGE

Freestyle tests

The FEI Dressage Freestyle tests have been updated to allow for 0.1 decimals for the artistic marks. The tests can be found here.

DRIVING

2017 FEI World Championship for Young Horses, Mezőhegyes (HUN)

We would like to draw your attention to the fact that the qualification and selection is now under the responsibility of the National Federations.

The Document for FEI World Driving Championships for Young Horses has been amended accordingly and is available on inside.fei.org.

The FEI UPDATE and supporting documents are available on the FEI UPDATE Library on the FEI website.
