FEI AWARDS 2017

Four days left to cast your vote!

We have received an overwhelming number of votes for the FEI Awards 2017 since the lines opened last Wednesday and with just four days to go, we wanted to give one last push to make sure everyone has their say. If you have not voted yet, please go here and cast your vote by 1 October 2017. Note that you can vote once per device. This is the first time since launching the FEI Awards in 2009, that the public can cast a vote for their heroes and impact who they think deserves to win. To find out more about this year's shortlisted nominees, click here.

Many thanks to everyone that has already voted and to all the National Federations and FEI Family members for actively promoting their nominees and heroes.
