FEI WORLD EQUESTRIAN GAMES™ 2022

Bid Process officially opens today!

The Bid Process for the FEI World Equestrian Games™ 2022 is officially opening today with a first “Expression of Interest” phase in order to gather worldwide interests before moving forward to the next stage with the Bid Application.

As you know, the FEI has carried out a major review of its flagship event and you will find more details in the link below.

With eight World Championships held under one single umbrella, the FEI World Equestrian Games™ are a celebration of equestrian sport, demonstrating the diversity of our athletes and nations. They are no small undertaking and as a result it requires a thorough bid process to select the best host city for the next Games.

The Expression of Interest form as well as bid timeline and bid phases details can be found on the World Equestrian Games™ bidding page on FEI.org.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the team overseeing bids at the FEI, Francisco P. Lima and Frédérique Martin-Basté, at bidding@fei.org.

General information about all bid processes for the FEI Named-Events can be found on FEI.org.

FEI SPORTS FORUM 2016

Lausanne (SUI), 4-5 April

With only four days to go, we are pleased to bring you the latest information on the FEI Sports Forum 2016.

The updated programme can be found here. It provides a detailed timetable for the event, a short overview of each session including the list of the panelists involved along with comprehensive logistical details.

The latest supporting documents are available here. Any updates to these documents will also be published on this page.

We are excited to announce that those who cannot make the trip to Lausanne to attend the event in person will be able to follow it live on FEI TV. The broadcast will be free of charge but users will need to register to access the online platform.

The contributions received from stakeholders to date are published here and have been taken into consideration in the preparation process. We would like to thank each and every one of you for your interest and for taking the time to comment.

We look forward to welcoming you to Lausanne and to an interesting and lively FEI Sports Forum 2016.
