DRESSAGE

FEI Entry System for Dressage Competitions

As announced during the FEI General Assembly 2013, the FEI Entry System is already in place for Jumping and Endurance and will be extended to Dressage in January 2014. To ensure that the new Entry System for Dressage is handled in the best way possible, it will be launched progressively with selected National Federations at certain Events from January to March 2014.

The calendar of the selected Dressage Events can be found here.

All athlete and horse entries for these events must be processed via the new FEI Entry System for Dressage.

The FEI Entry System for Dressage Events will be mandatory for all CDI from April 2014.

To help users to familiarise themselves with the system, online training sessions will be given to National Federation and Organising Committee members.

All useful details on the new system and information regarding the online training sessions can be found on the relevant web page.

The FEI will inform Organising Committees of Dressage events about this new procedure but please don't hesitate to inform your own contacts within the committees.

If you have any questions, please contact us at: entries@fei.org.
