| 5. | 5. Endurance Forum 23-24 May The Endurance Forum Theme was Modernising the Sport. Attracted 80 Delegates from 28 nations. In addressing this title, there were presentations on Marketing the sport to the public as well making the sport spectator friendly. It is obvious the use of technology will play a pivotal role in promotion of Endurance. The use of Facebook, Drone technology and taking some good ideas from Cycling, would have in immediate results in marketing our discipline without considerable expense. Obviously, there is a need for some formal media training with in the OC. Other presentations concentrated on horse welfare in training and competition. Drs Ewin Bennett and Chris Whitton indicated the importance of repetitive strain Injuries could lead to life threatening fractures in the horse that has no previous sign of injury. They also indicated that a small reduction in speed combined with appropriate rest periods has the potential to have a positive impact on reducing bone fatigue. Equirating presented a potential model for predicting risk in the sport. Equirating is aimed at encouraging rider responsibility as well as a tool for NF management and governance. |
| 6. | 6. Rule Changes and clarifications As a result of the Forum, a number of rule changes have been discussed by the ETC and presented for your opinion. These changes cover: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Weights</li> <li>- Increased mandatory horse rest period</li> <li>- Format and higher (4 and 5) star rating of competition</li> <li>- Duties of official's= TD/Ground Jury</li> <li>- Qualification criteria for 4 and 5-star events</li> <li>- Planning for the WEG Tyron</li> <li>- Appointment of Officials at Events</li> <li>- Blood Rule</li> </ul>  |
| 7. | 7. Endurance Technical Committee Structure and Function. On behalf of my committee, I sincerely thank Our President, Ingmar DeVos and our Secretary General for their support of the Endurance Forum. I also I thank our wonderful FEI staff who make the planes arrive on time. Thank you to my colleagues for sharing their spare time on a telephone. "Can you speak up" Lastly I thank you Manuel for his attention to detail, his patience for humans and his love of horses.  |
