

Rule Clarifications

Registration & Change of Horse Ownership/Nationality (Olympic Games only)

- Mon 15 Jan 2024: Deadline for all Paris 2024 Horses to be registered in FEI Database with same nationality as competing Olympic Games Athlete
- Horse's nationality is that of its Owner. Owner can be a person or a company. If a company, the nationality is the country where company is registered.
- Horse owned by multiple owners of different nationalities - must be registered in FEI Database under the name of the nation that the horse will compete for in Paris 2024 by 15 Jan 2024
- If a Horse changes nationality after 15 Jan 2024, ineligible to compete at Paris 2024
- NFs should check all their potential Paris 2024 Horses on the FEI Database
- 15 Jan 2024 deadline is a strict deadline; no exceptions

Qualification Procedure – Explanation

EVENTING – Individual qualification – Allocation of quota

For Eventing a NOC can qualify for a maximum of two (2) individual places, either through their FEI Olympic Group or through the overall FEI Olympic Ranking, or both.

Each athlete can obtain a maximum of one (1) individual quota place for their NOC.

*A NOC can therefore earn up to two individual quota places via the FEI Olympic Group Rankings
14 Individual Quota places are allocated via the FEI Olympic Group Rankings and 3 Individual Quota places are allocated via the overall FEI Olympic Ranking.*

DRESSAGE – Individual qualification – Allocation of quota

For Dressage the allocation through FEI Olympic Groups, a NOC can qualify for a maximum of one (1) individual place.

Should the overall quota of 60 places not have been filled after completing the reallocation process, the leftover quota places will be allocated via the overall FEI Olympic Rankings Dressage and a NOC that has already earned/accepted an Individual quota place is entitled to a second Individual quota place.

FEI Olympic Group D & E (North America, Central & South America)

4 quota places will be allocated from FEI Olympic Groups D and E, so if there are no Group D individuals available to claim an individual quota place (if their NOC has a team quota place already), the 4 best ranked individuals from Group E would obtain them.
