

Session 4 – Monday, 25 April, 14:00 – 15:00

Paris 2024 Olympic Regulations – Dressage

Speakers' biographies

Maribel Alonso de Quinzaños (MEX) – Chair, FEI Dressage Committee

Maribel Alonso de Quinzaños is an experienced 5* Judge. After giving up competitive sports due to an injury, she has been actively involved as a Judge and Technical Delegate at the highest level of the sport. She was a member of the Ground Jury at the London 2012 and Rio 2016 Olympic Games and was on the Judges Supervisory Panel at the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games. She served as Technical Delegate at the 2019 Pan American Games in Lima (PER). Maribel Alonso was elected Chair of the FEI Dressage Committee and member of the FEI Board in 2021.

Bettina De Rham (FEI HQ) – FEI Director, Dressage, Para Dressage, Vaulting

Bettina De Rham has been FEI Director of Dressage and Para Dressage since 2016. She also manages Vaulting and was in charge of Reining until it stopped being an FEI discipline in November 2021. One of De Rham's first missions upon joining the FEI in 2008 was assisting in the logistical coordination for the Beijing 2008 Paralympic Games. Bettina De Rham, who is of Swiss and Dutch origins, is an amateur Dressage and Eventing competitor and an Event organiser at national level.

Patrick Kittel (SWE) – Member, FEI Dressage Committee

Patrick Kittel is a three-time Olympian, who represented Sweden in Dressage at the Beijing 2008, London 2012, and Rio 2016 Olympic Games. He has competed at three FEI World Equestrian Games™ in 2010, 2014, and 2018 and numerous FEI Dressage World Cup™ Finals and FEI Dressage European Championships. Patrick Kittel has been a member of the FEI Dressage Committee since 2019.